Summary and introducing the characters:

Summary of the test statistic

Phil begins to sing the complicated song, "The Nightclub Sings As If searching for the meaning of his life, he continues to sing while remembering his past: losing love against his parents' wishes, and abandonment, feeling bullied in school, his only friend, relative, his grandmother, pushing away the only love that took him to discovering him as a musician. After he decided to continue singing this song as long as he is alive, until he burns out, he called Ravee for his assistance.
